

179

BY DESIRE, OF
Sir BOYLE and LADY ROCHE.

On SATURDAY Evening AUGUST the 14th. 1790.

Will be presented, a COMEDY called THE

DRAMATIST: OR, STOP HIM WHO CAN.

Lord Scratch,	Mr. Vapid,	Mr. WILLIAMS,	Ennui,	Mr. MARTIN.
Neville,	Mr. FAIRBAIRN	Willoughby,	Mr. WENTWORTH
Peter,	Mr. TYRRELL	Servant,	Mr. MAYCOCK.
	Mr. KANE	And Florival,	Mr. SPRAGG
	Lady Withfort,	Mrs. MARTIN.
Louisa,	Mrs. COOPER.	Letty,	Mrs. FAIRBAIRN
	And Marianne,	Mrs. WILLIAMS.

After which will be exhibited to all lovers of HARMONY the pleasing
PERFORMANCE of Mr. and Mrs. WILKINSON, on their improved

And much admired DOUBLE SET of Musical Glassees.

On which they will perform several of the most Fashionable
Airs, Duets, Trios, Quartetto's, &c.

To speak in praise of their own merits as PERFORMERS, might probably be deemed Vanity in Mr. & Mrs. Wilkinson, they therefore leave it to the Candour of those Auditors who witness their Performance to say, whether their Abilities deserve COMMENDATION, or CENSURE.

The whole to Conclude with Mr. WILKINSON'S capital Performance on the

SLACK WIRE.

Which he has the vanity to assert, cannot be exceeded by any Performer in Europe.

BOXES, 3s.—PIT, 2s.—GALLERY, 1s

TICKETS to be had of the Waiters at each INN, at the THEATRE, and of Mr. WILLIAMS.
Places to be taken for the BOXES, at the THEATRE every Day from Ten to one o' Clock.

To begin exactly a Quarter before 6 o' Clock, and finish at Nine.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson's performance both on the GLASSES and WIRE, were last Night received with universal applause.— Different tunes on the Glassees and Performance on the Wire—No half Price.